

DAY 1 IN DELHI

QUTAB MINAR

7:30 AM to 8:30 AM

Start the day early in the most iconic tower of Delhi. Take the metro and get down at the Qutab Minar station. This 825 years old tower is the tallest brick made tower in the world.

LOTUS TEMPLE

9:00 AM to 11:30 PM

20 minutes taxi drive from Qutab Minar will take you to this marvellous temple of the Bahá'í religion. Appreciate this marvellous architecture and join in a silent prayer session inside the temple.

HUMAYUN'S TOMB

12:00 PM to 2:30 PM

In 20 minutes, a taxi will take you at this impressive mausoleum. Built in 1572, Humayun's Tomb was the inspiration behind the Taj. Visit Isa Khan's Tomb in the same complex afterwards.

SAFDARJANG'S TOMB

4:00 PM to 5:30 PM

Take your lunch and go to this last monumental tomb garden by the Mughals in Char Bagh style. You will get a perfect view of the mausoleum as soon as you enter through the gate.

INDIA GATE

6:30 PM to 7:30 PM

It's a long day full of architecture and history. Now is the time to go to the Rajpath to see India Gate, a war memorial in memory of the martyrs of First World War. Enjoy the crowd, colour and food in the street.

DAY 2 IN DELHI

GANDHI SMRITI

10:00 AM to 11:00 AM

Start the day with the house where Indian father of the nation Mahatma Gandhi spent his last 144 days of life and got assassinated. You will find his bed, spinning wheel, goggles, stick, photos and get to know about this noble man.

RED FORT

12:30 AM to 3:30 PM

This brick coloured tall walled fort is a significant place in India as the president hangs flag each year. Enjoy the design intricacy of Diwan-i-Aam and Diwan-i-khas of this UNESCO World Heritage Site.

JAMA MASJID

4:00 PM to 5:00 PM

Imagine a place where more than 25,000 people pray in a congregation! This 365 years old mosque in Old Delhi is fascinating with it's architecture, big minarets, marbles and vibe around it.

FOOD IN OLD DELHI

5:15 PM to 8:00 PM

Just out of the Jama Masjid, you will find a series of restaurants from where you can eat the most delicious chicken fries, Kebabs, and Sweets. Don't be afraid to taste different cuisines which you are not familiar with.

STREET SHOPPING

8:00 PM to 9:00 PM

In old Delhi, you will find narrow streets, hawkers, and shops on the street. Just walk in the alleys, see the life of the people, and try to buy something. If you can accept the crowd and noise, It will give you a real taste of India.

